Taking the Worst of the Worst Off the Streets

Pacific Southwest Regional Fugitive Task Force (PSWRFTF) On April 27, 2006 Kevin Dwane Pryor was arrested in Pacoima, CA by members of the PSWRFTF, deputy US marshals (DUSMs) from the Central District of California, and agents from the California Department of Justice. Authorities in Inglewood, CA wanted Pryor for both Arson and Attempted Murder. Pryor, upset over the end of a personal relationship, allegedly approached his ex-girlfriend's residence in Inglewood, called the woman on a cell phone, and threatened to burn the home unless she agreed to speak with him. Pryor then allegedly forced open a window, poured a liquid into the home, and then set fire to the structure. The woman, along with her children, escaped from a rear exit and called for assistance. Before fleeing the area, Pryor also allegedly set fire to the woman's car. PSWRFTF investigators, with critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), developed information indicating Pryor's location in Pacoima. Following surveillance, PSWRFTF investigators followed Pryor to the parking lot of a local shopping center, and took him safely into custody. Pryor, who faces possible prosecution under California's '3-strike' statute, has an extensive criminal history with prior arrests for firearms possession, Shooting at an Occupied Dwelling, narcotics violations, and Robbery.	 Kevin Dwane Pryor Wanted for: Arson &amp; Attempted Murder
New York/New Jersey Regional Fugitive Task Force (NY/NJ RFTF) On April 18, 2006 Latoria Geddes, a high-ranking member of the G-Shine set of the Bloods street gang, was arrested in Trenton, NJ by members of NY/NJ RFTF. Trenton PD wanted Geddes for Assault and Robbery. On April 16, 2006 Geddes allegedly used physical force to severely injure a female victim during a robbery. NY/NJ RFTF investigators developed information on Geddes' location, responding to that target area. Task force members gained entry into the target residence, observed Geddes hiding under a bed, and placed her under arrest.	G-Shine/Bloods Gang Member  Latoria Geddes Wanted for: Assault &amp; Robbery

On April 20, 2006, during Operation FALCON II, Antoine Sallay was arrested in Chicago, IL by GLRFTF members. Authorities in Chicago wanted Sallay for a violation of parole, original charge of Aggravated Criminal Sexual Assault of a Child Under Nine (9). This represented Sallay's second violation of parole, as he initially failed to register as a sex offender. From August 1994 to November 1994, on numerous occasions, Sallay repeatedly forced his seven (7) year old female victim to perform sex acts on him. GLRFTF investigators developed information revealing Sallay resided in Chicago. When GLRFTF personnel entered the target building, Sallay fled the second floor and led officers on a brief foot pursuit before being apprehended.

On April 20, 2006 Victor Goodman, a known member of the '4500 Street' gang, was arrested in College Park, GA by members of SERFTF, SWAT officers from the Fulton County (GA) PD, and officers from the College Park PD. Authorities in Atlanta, GA wanted Goodman for Murder and Aggravated Assault in connection with a July 2005 gang-related murder. During this incident, Goodman allegedly participated in the killing of a drug dealer during a gang 'turf-war'. The Fulton County PD requested the assistance of SERFTF in locating and apprehending those who participated in the shooting. With critical assistance from the Technical Operations Group (TOG), investigators quickly captured all of the wanted subjects, except for Goodman. SERFTF investigators continued to pursue Goodman, recently developing information indicating a target location in College Park. Following a standoff during which Goodman initially refused to exit an attic, law enforcement personnel took Goodman safely into custody. At the time of arrest, additional warrants in Fulton County named Goodman in cases involving Felony Burglary, Kidnapping, Robbery, and Theft. The East Point, GA PD also wanted Goodman for an additional Homicide.

Capital Area Regional Fugitive Task Force (CARFTF)

On April 27, 2006 Laval Ellis was arrested in Richmond, VA by members of CARFTF and detectives from the Richmond and New York PDs. Authorities in New York wanted Ellis for homicide, a charge relating to his alleged fatal shooting of a man outside a popular nightclub. During the fatal shooting, Ellis received multiple gunshot wounds to his chest, but survived and fled to Richmond. Following a request for assistance in locating and apprehending Ellis, CARFTF established a probable location for Ellis, responded to that location, and took him safely into custody.
